

TOY WAREHOUSE HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION

Application to Approve Non-Residential Activities

The Toy Warehouse Lofts CC&R requires that all non-residential activities within the residential portions of the building be reviewed and approved by the HOA Board. Owners are responsible for completing this application anytime a new resident plans to conduct any such activity or an existing resident changes the nature of his or her work activity in the building

Unit Number _____

Owner _____

Name of Resident _____

Name of Business, if Any _____

Contact _____

Nature of Work Activity _____

Does this work require any materials or processes that would be likely to cause damage or fire? _____

Please describe _____

Will paints, solvents, fluxes, or other chemicals that may create odors or fumes be used _____

Please describe _____

Is any machinery employed in the work? Any unusual power requirements? _____

Please describe _____

Are loud noises produced in the course of the work (loud music, hammering, large meetings, equipment etc) _____

Does the activity involve regular public access? Please Describe _____

Are food service activities a part of the work? _____

How many people does the business typically employ? _____

Are there expected to be frequent meetings? How many persons? _____

Business license type and number _____

Other permits and approvals _____

Additional comments _____

Applicant _____ Date _____